Meet Athletes Like:

Al Hough

Age is no barrier to Al Hough, hailing from London, Ontario. He attended Louisiana State University on a track scholarship. After 17 years in the plumbing business, the competitive urge has returned. At 39, Al came out for the Toronto camp and made the cut for the 2003-04 national team. After pushing for Pierre Leuders in 2003, Al plans to compete in the 2 and 4 man bobsled events at the 2006 Winter Games.
