Klein Farber acted on behalf of Salbro Bottle Group of Companies on their recent financing. As part of this process, Klein Farber advised on the business strategy, determined financing needs, and sourced and negotiated terms. Accelteon, one of our strategic partners, assisted Klein Farber with the development of the business strategy.

Salbro is an established designer, manufacturer, and distributor of packaging components, specializing in glass and plastic bottles. Serving a broad number of industry sectors, Salbro products form part of the packaging for many household brand name products. Drawing from their deep relationships in the packaging field across the globe, Salbro manufactures and has access to sources of glass bottles, specialized containers, lids, caps, and pumps to offer their customers a full spectrum of packaging solutions.
